

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Bill and Amy Protxter received their college degrees from South Dakota schools--Bill graduated from the University of South Dakota and Amy graduated from Augustana College; and,

WHEREAS, Bill has been actively involved in the Republican party for many years having served as legislative intern for the 1980 Speaker of the House George Mickelson, helped reorganize the South Dakota College Republicans, was intern to United States Senator Jim Abdnor in 1981, served in the Janklow administration and also the Janklow re-election campaign, and was executive director of the Reagan-Bush campaign; and,

WHEREAS, Amy has been active in Cenkota Republican Women and has been extremely supportive of Bill's Republican activities--through good times and in bad; and,

WHEREAS, Bill has been executive director of the South Dakota Republican Party since 1984, and Amy has been administrative aide to the secretary of the Department of Transportation since 1983; and,

WHEREAS, Bill has accepted a job in Omaha, Nebraska, as Management Development Analyst for the Federal Reserve Bank, and they both are eagerly awaiting the birth of their first child--which begins a new chapter in their lives; and,

WHEREAS, Nebraska's gain is South Dakota's loss:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 6, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join with Bill and Amy's friends in wishing them farewell and good luck in the future with their new home and upcoming family.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
